

THE DISTRICT TEAM AT THE TARGETS. AGAIN THE WINNERS.

District Rifleman Capture Two More Prizes.

HILTON TROPHY AND BRONZE SOLDIER.

A World's Record Tied by the Marksmen.

RETURN ON MONDAY NIGHT.

Special Dispatch to The Evening Star.

CAMP SPENCER, SEA GIRT, Aug. 19.—Washington is again the winner of the great Hilton International Trophy, and, in addition to being the possessor of that valuable title, holds a title to the green bronze figure of the "Soldier of Marathon," which, like the Hilton, is offered for annual competition by the National Rifle Association.

At this time the trophies are at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania's capital, but within a few days the jewelry will be forwarded to Washington, there to remain for at least an entire year.

The Hilton trophy, which is a stranger to Washington, for it was exhibited there from the latter part of 1911 to October, 1922, but the bronze soldier is unknown there and will be much admired by the people.

In spite of the fact that both New York and Pennsylvania failed to show up in the competition, it was known generally that the Washington marksmen had won out by a score larger than that made by the Keystone marksmen, and there was evidence of a great victory for the District team.

The opening was delayed until 10 o'clock so as to give the absentees a chance to put in an appearance, but the great state of Pennsylvania made no effort to defend the trophy it won a year ago, while New York was also utterly careless. There were many Washingtonians among the spectators when the interstate match opened, among them being Mr. E. L. Granger, Mr. Crawford, Mr. Percy Crawford and Mr. E. H. Spang. They were quite loyal in supporting their representatives.

At 200 yards some first-class work was done by both teams, the District securing 800 points, while Jersey got 68.

ANIMALS BREED DISEASE.

How Acute Mania is Often Attributed to Hydrophobia.

The Cat as a Cause of Epidemic—Danger of Feeding Domestic Pets.

"There has been an unusual number of deaths this summer from hydrophobia," said an insanity expert to a Star reporter yesterday. "However, we star doctors do not share the popular belief regarding this complaint."

"I was called the other day to attend the case of a young woman who was dying with all the symptoms of so-called hydrophobia. She was in convulsions. When she opened her eyes she would see a bit of light through the sheet and she would then like a dog and froth at the mouth."

The average general practitioner would have been called to see a patient who was in this condition. But there was no objection to that theory—the patient had never been bitten by a dog or by any other animal, and there was no insect. Not only was there no dog at all in the history of the disease, the latter was nothing more or less than a case of acute mania.

"Acute mania is a complaint which manifests itself in all of the symptoms which are common to hydrophobia. The patient is thrown into convulsions at the least and the disease is very dangerous. Barking like a dog, frothing at the mouth and the delirium are the chief manifestations. The unfortunate man or woman is served with both food and water and the patient is kept in a dark room. In cases of ten death ensue."

WEST POINTERS AT THE FAIR.

Nearly Three Hundred Cadets Arrive at the White City.

The White City at Chicago was gay with uniforms, martial music, and hand-drawn. Two hundred and eighty West Point cadets were the chief attraction. They arrived in the forenoon, and the cadets had been made to give them a send-off.

They were met by a military escort of militia and regulars and an enthusiastic crowd. They were greeted by cheers and the waving of umbrellas and their stately uniforms elicited words of admiration along the line. The cadets will remain ten days.

The management regard their presence as a great drawing card for the fair. They are camped in army style, and have been assigned an open space on the great lawn, where their tents are being pitched. They will be in regular camp being given to the fair.

The West Pointers will be treated to a day of military drill, and the cadets will be given a day of military drill. The West Pointers will be treated to a day of military drill, and the cadets will be given a day of military drill.
